

TORE OFF HIS ARM

And Threw the Member Across the Room.

HORRIBLE FATE OF A MECHANIC

While Working in a Manufacturing Establishment at Jackson—Assaulted a Baby—Other State News.

JACKSON, July 24.—Joseph Millard, an employee of the John Hutchinson Manufacturing company, east of this city, met with a frightful accident in the shop yesterday. He was working around the shafting when his hand was caught in a pulley. His arm was twisted off between the wrist and elbow and thrown across the room. The broken bones protruded from the muscles of the arm, which was torn and lacerated in a horrible manner. It was a sickening sight, and his companions who went to his assistance were almost overcome. He was taken to the hospital, where the arm was amputated near the shoulder. His condition is serious, but it is believed he will recover. Millard is a strong man but 22 years of age and showed wonderful courage, but was finally overcome from loss of blood.

ALL GOOD REPUBLICANS.

A Warm Campaign Will Be Conducted in Bay County.

BAY CITY, Mich., July 24.—While Hazen S. Pingree of Detroit was the choice of four-fifths of the republicans of Bay county for governor, the nomination of John T. Rich is received throughout the county with good grace. The Bay delegation which went to Saginaw to endorse Mr. Pingree's cause, and which cast its solid vote for him, accepted the result of the ballot without a murmur, and all are now advocating Mr. Rich with the same enthusiasm they displayed in behalf of their first choice. Already active work has been commenced by republicans in this locality, and plans are being devised to conduct an active and successful campaign. A meeting of the Young Men's Republican club was held last evening, nearly all the entire membership being present. This club is composed almost entirely of voters, who up to the day of nominations were more enthusiastic supporters of Mr. Pingree. While they are disappointed over the defeat of the man they so much admired none of them show an inclination to grumble, but on the other hand evince a desire to do all in their power to assist the candidate to win a victory in November next.

Now that the state ticket has been formulated, speculation is being indulged in concerning a possible candidate for the tenth district. Several names have been mentioned, including those of Thomas Craggs, Mendel J. Bealy, Orville A. Watrous and James A. Vankied, all of Bay county. It is generally conceded throughout the district that Bay must furnish the candidate this year. The belief is universal among republicans that they can carry the district this fall, and no effort will be spared to accomplish the desired result. Local democratic leaders are booming S. O. Fisher for governor, and judging from present appearances his name will come before the democratic state convention as a candidate for the nomination. Mr. Fisher is not himself so desirous of the nomination as are many of his friends, but considering the pressure which is being brought to bear on him, there remains little doubt but that he will map at the bait if it should chance to come his way.

DIED IN A TUB.

Peculiar Fate of a Wealthy Man at Mt. Clemens.

MT. CLEMENS, July 24.—William Patton of Philadelphia brought his wife to the Avery house about a week ago, intending to leave her to obtain benefit from the baths and return home. He wished her to have a suitable companion, and was waiting for such could be found. Yesterday morning he went to take a mineral bath without an attendant, and shortly afterwards was heard calling. An attendant stepped to the door and was asked for a glass of water, but when he entered with the water he found Mr. Patton with his face submerged in the bathtub, dead. A jury was impaneled and a post mortem examination was held. It was decided that death resulted from natural causes. He was a wealthy retired gentleman and a most devoted husband and father. His wife is nearly prostrated with grief. They had one son who is medical superintendent of the Presbyterian hospital at Philadelphia.

Big Job on Their Hands.

ALPENA, Mich., July 24.—F. W. Gilchrist and W. A. Potter, two of Alpena's wealthy lumbermen, have closed a contract with James Hamilton to cut 80,000,000 feet of lumber on the Muskegon river near Georgian bay. The timber will be rafted to this city to be sawed.

Tania's Work Undone.

SAGINAW, Mich., July 4.—Considerable work was noted on the street yesterday from the circulation of a report that the cope stone of the new city hall, recently laid with imposing ceremonies, had been stolen. Investigation revealed the fact that the stone had been removed by the contractor in order to build up at the side of it and it will be replaced again. But of course the work done by Grand Master W. F. Jones of the Masonic order has gone for naught.

Squabble About Creeds Revived.

SAGINAW, Mich., July 24.—Considerable feeling exists here over a complaint made by ex-Fireman Joseph Higgins, who charges Fire Chief George W. Wallis with removing him on account of his religious views.

The chief stated before a special committee that he discharged Higgins because he was drunk and fighting on July 4.

George W. Weadock, who is Higgins' attorney, claims on behalf of Higgins that he was a good man and was not drunk, and also that he is the first man who has been removed, except one, in several years. There is a strong suspicion here that Higgins was removed owing to the secret influence of the Loyal Sons of America.

Both in Trouble Now.

PORT HURON, July 24.—Harry Marengo, who was arrested in Detroit last evening on a charge of seduction, preferred by Fanny Foster, a comely girl of 17, of this city, was brought here yesterday by Sheriff Bernas. When arraigned before Judge Robinson he pleaded not guilty, and had his examination set for next week. Bail was placed at $500, which was furnished late in the evening. Marengo will fight the matter, and has engaged O'Brien J. Atkinson to defend him.

Assaulted a Baby.

BIG RAPIDS, July 24.—Sheriff Breachey has arrived here having in charge Wallis Hutchins of Fork township, charged with the heinous crime of assaulting a 4-year-old girl. There was the greatest excitement imaginable created at his arrest and a rope was talked of. Before the threats could be put into execution the sheriff had his prisoner on the way here.

Jackson County Teachers.

JACKSON, July 24.—The Teachers' institute of Jackson county will open a two weeks' session in the east side building tomorrow morning. Prof. D. E. Haskins, who has charge of the arrangements, is doing everything to make the institute a success. Prof. C. O. Hoyt and Prof. H. R. Pattengill will lecture on orthography.

Spoiled His Appearance.

SAGINAW, Mich., July 24.—Ernest Hohlengel, an employee of German's mill, and Rudolph Bayke quarreled yesterday, and the latter struck Hohlengel on the nose with a hammer, inflicting a bad wound, breaking through the wall of the nose.

Painful Tumble.

DIMONDAL, Mich., July 24.—Frank Clark, 21 years old, started to climb a ladder in J. Robinson's barn. A plank slipped, letting the ladder down, and he fell about eight feet, smashing the left arm both sides of the elbow and breaking the right one at the wrist.

Cured Her Pain With Acornite.

SHEPHERD, Mich., July 24.—Annie Avery, seven miles from here, aged 16, took acornite with suicidal intent. Her friends raced a team here, but she died in the doctor's office. Unrequited love is supposed to have caused the trouble.

SPORT IS TOO MILD

One of the Fraternity Years for the

GOOD OLD SPORTING DAYS

When the Knock Down and Drag Out Fight Was in Favor and Cocking Mains Numerous.

"Grand Rapids isn't much of a sporting town after all," said a member of the kid-gloved sporting fraternity, as he watched a patrolman break up an incipient dog fight on Canal street. "I can remember when a street dog fight would have been attended by 200 persons, and three or four free fights would have been thrown in on the side. Now the only men that take any interest in the fights are the owners, and they fall over each other trying to rescue their dog, for fear he'll get chewed. Or if a good fight starts when the dogs are alone, some blooming cop breaks it up just as that duffer did this one. Dog fights don't attract any attention any more. Nobody seems to care anything about 'em, and you rarely hear of a fight for money. The public's lost its nerve, I guess."

"Now there's cock fighting. Isn't anything more exciting known to sportsmen. Take two game cocks and let them get at each other in a pit and you can see just as lively times as any body wants to see. Roosters are dead game scrappers. You don't often see a blooded bird show the white feather. He stays in the ring until he wins or has a spur put through him. But you don't see cock fights any more. If there is one it is held out in the country in a barn, on the 'q. t.' and after you get out there ten to one it's a fake. There used to be a time when a man with a good game cock and a $10 bill could get up a match almost anywhere. He wouldn't need to go two blocks before he could find a chicken owner that was willing to stay with him. Now only a few sports own the birds, and it's more trouble to get up a fight than half of 'em are worth. You see the police are after everything of that kind. Anything that there's any fun in the cops are always ready to pull you for doing. That's what knocks cock fighting out as a sport."

Spotted by the Police.

"There's rat killing; another bang-up sport that the police have spoiled. You take a rat full of rats and a lively dog, and there's fun all the time. The show is going on. But you don't see it very often now. There was a time when any number of saloons had a pit in the back of the building where you could have a dog fight, a cock main, or anything else you wanted; but they're mighty few now."

"There's prize fighting; that's a lost art too. We have a few sparring exhibitions, but they don't cut any figure. Two duffers get up and slap each other's face a few times with a mitten and then have some one rub 'em down. You don't see any honest, straight-from-the-shoulder scraps any more. The days of the knock-down and drag-out fight seem to be done for. The average 'mill' these days isn't so interesting as a school-boy fight ought to be. The police have spoiled prize fighting by their perpetual interference. There are only a few places in the country where a first-class fight can be held. The prize fight is practically a back number institution in this country. So long as the police won't allow bona fide matches to a finish there isn't much use trying to get up a fight. There's no fun in one of these milk and water sparring bouts."

"The whole character of modern sports is being changed. You don't often hear of wrestling matches any more. They used to be of frequent occurrence. Of course, dishonest wrestling has had a great deal to do with this state of things. There's no sport in existence where it's so easy to 'throw' as in a wrestling match. You know a man's foot may slip or he may lose his grip for a second, and the instant he does he's doomed. It is a mighty easy thing to do something like that intentionally and not be detected. Sprinting is another sport that has come into disrepute by the same dishonest means."

Most of Them Fixed.

"It is a rare thing to find a race that isn't fixed. I don't know but a sprinting match can be 'thrown' as easily as a wrestling bout. I know that most of them are not straight, and about the only place you find honest sprinting contests is in collegiate field days, and they don't count as sporting events. "Base ball has been done up by the professionals, and has lost all claim to the distinction of being the national game. In spite of the claims that this year is the greatest in the history of base ball, everybody that knows anything about the game knows that there isn't a tenth part of the interest manifested in it that there was two or three years ago. Men that would drop business and everything else to go to a ball game wouldn't go across the street now to see the best game that has been played this season. As a national sport base ball has lost its grip, and it will be several moons before it is restored to the place it once held. Dishonest professional players are the cause of it; and what ever favor base ball enjoys in the future it must win as an amateur sport."

"Horse racing is very popular just now, but it is due to the pool selling and book making, rather than to the sport itself. You couldn't get a crowd out to see the race's themselves if it were not for the accompanying betting."

"Trotting, tennis and bicycling are about the only sports now that are popular. When they go under I suppose we'll have something else to take their place, but Heaven only knows what. All three of them are pretty tame sports, however, and a man that yearns for prize fights and cocking mains can't be expected to take much interest in a tennis match between two feather weight duffers."

The Feeding of Infants.

The fact that the first year of an infant's life is the most important, and the first year, is a significant and lamentable. "I am decidedly of the opinion," says the well-known authority, J. H. Hanford, M. D., "that the general introduction of lactated food would materially diminish this death rate."
